

I should have the ability to take my cell phone number with me between providers. Service and missrepresentation of service is rampant. This would put SERVICE back in play.